

SAILING THE MACRO WORKSHOP

September 6-8, 2024
Ortygia Foundation
Siracusa

Ortygia

Call for papers

We are pleased to announce that the fourth edition of the Sailing the Macro Workshop will be held at the Ortygia Foundation in Ortygia, Siracusa, Italy.

We invite submissions from researchers, academics, and practitioners for original research papers covering a wide range of macroeconomics topics. The workshop aims to facilitate discussions of ongoing research on policy-relevant questions and provide a platform for exchanging ideas and findings among experts in the field.

Conference Topics

Reflecting the breadth of modern macroeconomics, the scope of relevant topics is broad, ranging from theoretical work to empirical applications. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

1. Economic growth and development
2. Monetary and fiscal policy

Keynote Speakers

Raffaella Giacomini
University College London

Evi Pappa
Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

Federica Romei
University of Oxford

3. Inflation and unemployment
4. International trade and fin
5. Business cycles and economic forecasting
6. Income distribution and inequality
7. Financial markets and institutions
8. Macroeconomic modeling and policy simulation
9. Structural change and economic transformation

Ph.D. Students

The conference organizing committee is committed to supporting and nurturing the next generation of macroeconomic researchers. As such, we highly encourage Ph.D. students to submit their research papers for presentation at the conference.

Ph.D. students will be able to present their work to a distinguished audience of experts in the field, receive valuable feedback on their research, and establish connections with leading academics and practitioners.

Submission Guidelines

We invite authors to submit their original, unpublished research papers or extended abstracts to be considered for presentation at the conference.

Please submit your paper via email as a PDF file to the address smw.dipecodir@uniroma1.it with the subject line "Sailing the Macro Submission."

Deadline for submissions

The deadline is 12 CET on 05 May 2024.

Late submissions will not be considered.

Selection and Notification

The conference committee will rigorously review all submitted papers. Authors will be notified of the acceptance of their papers by the end of May 2024.

Conference Venue

The conference will be held at the Ortygia Foundation, located in the heart of Ortygia, Siracusa, Italy. The Foundation offers an inspiring and unique setting for intellec-

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

Important Information

Submission deadline

05 May 2024

Submission email

smw.dipecodir@uniroma1.it

Notification of acceptance

By the end of May 2024

Conference website

www.sailingthemacro.com

tual exchange and debate, fostering collaboration and networking among participants.

Sailing the macro

As it is now tradition with the Sailing the Macro workshop, the afternoons will be dedicated to sailing. Conference participants can join sailing courses organized by the Magister Marine

Conference Fees

To partially cover conference costs, a registration fee of 200 Euros is applicable for all participants, with a discounted fee of 100 Euros for Ph.D. students.

The conference fee includes access to all conference sessions, conference materials, coffee breaks, lunches, and a conference dinner. Please note that accommodation and travel expenses are not included in the conference fee and must be arranged by the participants.

Upon the paper's acceptance, payment details and instructions for the conference fee will be provided. The acceptance notification email will specify the deadline for paying the conference fee.

We look forward to receiving your submissions and welcoming you to the beautiful island of Ortygia for an engaging and stimulating conference on macroeconomic theory and empirical macroeconomics.

Ph.D. Program in Economics
Department of Economics and Law
Department of Social Science and Economics
Sapienza University of Rome
Rome, 18/03/2024

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA