SAILING THE MACRO WORKSHOP

September 8-10, 2023 Ortygia Foundation Siracusa

Call for papers

We are pleased to announce that the third edition of the Sailing the Macro Workshop will be held at the Ortygia Foundation in Ortygia, Siracusa, Italy.

We invite submissions from researchers, academics, and practitioners for original research papers that cover a wide range of topics in macroeconomics. The workshop aims to facilitate discussions of ongoing research on policy-relevant questions and provide a platform for exchanging ideas and findings among experts in the field of macroeconomics.

Conference Topics

Reflecting the breadth of modern macroeconomics, the scope of relevant topics is broad, ranging from theoretical work to empirical applications. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

1. Economic growth and development

Keynote Speakers

Barbara Rossi Pompeu Fabra

Caterina Mendicino European Central Bank

Florin Bilbiie
Unversity of Cambridge

- 2. Monetary and fiscal policy
- 3. Inflation and unemployment
- 4. International trade and finance
- 5. Business cycles and economic forecasting
- 6. Income distribution and inequality
- 7. Financial markets and institutions
- 8. Macroeconomic modeling and policy simulation
- 9. Structural change and economic transformation

Ph.D. Students

The conference organizing committee is committed to supporting and nurturing the next generation of macroeconomic researchers. As such, we highly encourage Ph.D. students to submit their research papers for presentation at the conference.

Ph.D. students will have the opportunity to present their work to a distinguished audience of experts in the field, receive valuable feedback on their research, and establish connections with leading academics and practitioners.

Submission Guidelines

We invite authors to submit their original, unpublished research papers or extended abstracts to be considered for presentation at the conference.

Please submit your paper via email as a PDF file to the address smw.dipecodir@uniroma1.it with the subject line "Sailing the Macro Submission."

Deadline for submissions

The deadline is 12 CET on 02 May 2023.

Late submissions will not be considered.

Selection and Notification

All submitted papers will undergo a rigorous review process by the conference committee. Authors will be notified of the acceptance or rejection of their papers by 14 May 2023.

Important Information

Submission deadline
02 May 2023

Submission email smw-dipecodir@uniroma1.it

Notification of acceptance
14 May 2023

Conference website www.sailingthemacro.com

Conference Venue

The conference will be held at the Ortygia Foundation, located in the heart of Ortygia, Siracusa, Italy. The Foundation offers an inspiring and unique setting for intellectual exchange and debate, fostering collaboration and networking among participants.

Sailing the macro

As it is now tradition with the Sailing the Macro workshop, the afternoons will be dedicated to sailing. Conference participants can join sailing courses organized by the Ortygia Sailing School.

Conference Fees

To partially cover conference costs, a registration fee of 200 Euros is applicable for all participants, with a discounted fee of 100 Euros for Ph.D. students.

The conference fee includes access to all conference sessions, conference materials, coffee breaks, lunches, and a conference dinner. Please note that accommodation and travel expenses are not included in the conference fee and must be arranged by the participants.

Payment details and instructions for the conference fee will be provided upon acceptance of the paper. The conference fee payment deadline will be specified in the acceptance notification email.

We look forward to receiving your submissions and welcoming you to the beautiful island of Ortygia for an engaging and stimulating conference on macroeconomic theory and empirical macroeconomics.

Ph.D. Program in Economics

Department of Economics and Law

Department of Social Science and Economics

Sapienza University of Rome Rome, 12/04/2023